The Ford License Agreement permits Rastar Group to use Ford duly recorded and registered trademarks, specifically:

The Ford License Agreement permits Rastar Group to use the above-referenced trademarks in connection with the production, marketing, sale and importation of certain specifically defined Licensed Products, namely remote control vehicle replicas in 1/14 and 1/24 scales.

We have no objection presently to the importation or exportation, worldwide, of Licensed Products in compliance with the Ford Licensing Agreement as noted above.
